	ge the duty to disclose information known to me which is material to the examination of this n accordance with Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, §§ 1.56(a) and (b), which state:
the cindi good knowinfo cons cand the p	A patent by its very nature is affected with a public interest. The public interest is best served, the most effective patent examination occurs when, at the time an application is being examined, Office is aware of and evaluates the teachings of all information material to patentability. Each vidual associated with the filing and prosecution of a patent application has a duty of candor and d faith in dealing with the Office, which includes a duty to disclose to the Office all information wn to that individual to be material to patentability as defined in this section. The duty to disclose rmation exists with respect to each pending claim until the claim is cancelled or withdrawn from sideration, or the application becomes abandoned. Information material to the patentability that is celled or withdrawn from consideration need not be submitted if the information is not material to patentability of any claim remaining under consideration in the application. There is no duty to mit information which is not material to the patentability of any existing claim. The duty to disclose information known to be material to patentability is deemed to be satisfied if all information known

(1) prior art cited in search reports of a foreign patent office in a counterpart application, to be material to patentability of any claim issued in a patent was cited by the Office or submitted to the Office in the manner prescribed by §§ 1.97(b)-(d) and 1.98. However, no patent will be granted on an application in connection with which fraud on the Office was practised or attempted or the duty of disclosure was violated through bad faith or intentional misconduct. The Office encourages

- (2) the closest information over which individuals associated with the filing or prosecution of a patent application believe any pending claim patentably defines, to make sure that any material information contained therein is disclosed to the Office.
- (b) Under this section, information is material to patentability when it is not cumulative to information already of record or being made of record in the application, and

- (1) It establishes, by itself or in combination with other information, a prima facie case of unpatentability of a claim; or
- (2) It refutes, or is inconsistent with, a position the applicant takes in:
  - (I) Opposing an argument of unpatentability relied on by the Office, or
  - (ii) Asserting an argument of patentability.

A prima facie case of unpatentability is established when the information compels a conclusion that a claim is unpatentable under the preponderance of evidence, burden-of-proof standard, giving each term in the claim its broadest reasonable construction consistent with the specification, and before any consideration is given to evidence which may be submitted in an attempt to establish a contrary conclusion of patentability."
